

WHAT ARE THE MISMATCHES IN "THE STORY OF AN HOUR"?

What a character knows or believes		What the reader knows or believes
What the writer says		What the writer means
What we expect to happen		What actually happens

What do you think the writer is trying to tell you with these mismatches?